The Skoody
£30 (adults) £25 (children)

Sick and tired of carrying more cargo than a P&O liner whenever you are preparing to ward off the elements in the middle of winter? Gone are the days when you need a scarf, rain-jacket and fleece to keep warm while watching your favourite team, because the Skoody is the answer to all your prayers.

Designed by Benjamin Shine, the Skoody is a unique garment which can be quickly manoeuvred into whatever item you require. A soft, lightweight fleece scarf converts into a hooded top, then can be simply reversed into a smart shower resistant hoody.

Discreet tabs hide idle components, and fully adjustable grip strips and drawstrings tighten the cuff, hood and waist according to the wearer's needs.

The Skoody is fully machine washable and can be conveniently stored in a drawstring bag once back indoors. Available in three adult and two child sizes and with nine colours to choose from, there's a Skoody for everyone.
