ONE of our favourite topics of conversation is the weather. So why is it we are always badly prepared when we find ourselves caught in a shower?

Well, a British designer has come up with this three-in-one fashion gadget: in a bid to help us cope.

The Skody combines a scarf, hooded fleece and shower-proof which folds in and out of itself as quickly as the weather can change so you are always prepared.

Buy one today and you can almost guarantee a 'heat-wave'!
